Devoid of Truth

Suffocation

Your life has been planned since the day you were born
Affliction undefinable, condemned to suffer with the norm
Burden of despair - Traits of self denial
Raised and misled by life's light
I refuse let shine for meCorrupted misconceptions of how life should really be Shadowing existence in your plagued reality
Feeding off the error of the ones your emulate
Defection to deception and to mentally incarcerate
Devoid of truthMonarch of deceit and lies
Plagiarism overrides
Devoid of truthCaptive through what's carved in stone
Bleeding is the moral throne
Beckoned to false entity
Betrayed by eternity
Devoid of truthWrithing in the treachery
Face down in your misery
I feel not a thing
