We Can Never Go Back - Acoustic

Joy Williams

remember when you loved me remember when i let remember when it hurt like nothing else wanna try that againremember when we fought together it was us against the world remember how close we came wanna try that again... againwe can never go back we can only go on and on
we can never go back
we can only go on and on and on
go on and on and on remember when it all fell silent remember when you raised your voice remember what forgiveness feels like oooh you wanna try that again oh try that again
