

Brand New Ways

Thief Club

Whoever thought that sometimes life could go your way?
I never thought that'd it'd go mine
And though the years have passed, I'm still not perfect, but I wanna do this right
Now I've got this one big chance to prove myself, and no one thinks I can
So I'll sit with my pen in hand and write it out, before they get the chance to ask "What the hell are you waiting for?"
And honestly, I'm not sure
Seems all I find are brand new ways fail
