

Walking a Line

Tove Styrke

You a tricky kinda witty little furious psycho
It isn't easy to be breezy with a curious mind no
But when the dummies come around you will give it a go go
Hijack the idea of a girl that obeys
Hahahaha oh my
Laugh it in the face
And I'm biding my time
I'm walking a line
Yeah I'll walk in a line
I'm making it mine
And you stumble sometimes when you walk in a line
You walk in a line
And it's hard to unwind when you're faking a crime
You walk in a line
You get the feeling they're believing you can trigger the mofos
And when they get you they won't let you have a say if you say so
You wanna roll with it, go with it, bring it to control
Hijack the idea of mysterious ways
Hahahaha oh my
Laugh it in the face
