The Visit

Violet Indiana

This is the beginning, you're on the road
Your secret journey and no one will know
No need for words, oh, just let yourself go
Enjoy what I'm doing 'cos no one will knowThis is the visit
Just lie yourself down
The curtains are closed now
And there's no one aroundI'm here for pleasure, oh, I'll be who you need
Call me whoever 'cos I'm here to pleaseThis is the visit
Just lie yourself down
The curtains are closed now
And there's no one aroundThis is the visit
Just lie yourself back downThis is the visit, oh, lie yourself down
Curtains are closed now, don't you look down
This is the visit, where you can be with me
Be who you need to be, you're safe here with meThis is the visit, no one will know
Let me listen before you go
Remember at least I'll be your secret girl, oh
Come back and see me
