Too Much Trouble

Limahl

You've been gone for a little while
I've noticed there's a change in your smile
Oh how you've made your message loud and clear
But these are not the words that I expected to hearYou give me too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much trouble
Too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give meIf you want to try we could just be friends
But please tell me should you have to pretend?
Lovers heartbreaks make the sweetest sounds
And I can hear it you when you are aroundYou give me too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much trouble
Too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give meTrouble
Trouble
TroubleDon't give me too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much trouble
Too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much troubleToo much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much trouble
Too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much too you give me too much troubleToo much trouble
I said, too much trouble
I said, too much too don't give me too much trouble
Too much too don't give me too much trouble
Too much, too much, too much trouble
Too much
