Sidewinder

Bankrupt

I've seen everything you take
Every vow, every promise you make
You've got this desire to fake
And then you break
I've seen everything you take
Every vow you break
You've got this desire to fake
And then you break
Stop
Get away from me
No, I don't want to
You're looking for my breaking point
But I won't give it to you
God gave me glasses to see clearer
He threw away my rear view mirror

You act so superior
Don't want to get near you
Oh no I can't with you
Cause I see right through
Oh no it's not
Although you tell me so in my thought
You're no friend of mine
You don't want to tell me something I already know
Yes we can teach the world that your evil, it doesn't sleep
And I know you know
You are so scared
And you want me to feel the same
You are scared of the light, beautiful light
You are so scared
And you want me to feel the same
