

Done Is Done

Rachele Lynae

So this is it
This is what it feels like in the end
When done is done So that's the sound
Of all the words you swore you'd never say
Done is done You're just not coming back
There's nothing left for me to tell you
Maybe you weren't meant to be the one
There is no try again
And I can't break the walls around you
So these two hearts have nowhere left to run
What's done is done So here it comes
The doubting, the questions, the blame
Done is done So that's the taste
The way your goodbye lingers on my lips
Done is done You're just not coming back
There's nothing left for me to tell you
Maybe you weren't meant to be the one
There is no try again
And I can't break the walls around you
So these two hearts have nowhere left to run
What's done is done Swallow back the hope
Try so hard to know I can be alone
I don't need your arms around me
I'm strong enough to make it on my own
