Nova Heart (Extended Mix)

Spoons

Architects of the world
I walk your streets and live in your towns
Temporarily, architects of the world
You've served us well until now
But soon we'll be on our ownAnd I'll sleep, sleep in your
Nova heart
As things come apartI'll hide, hide in your
Nova heart
At ease with the thought
That this nova won't burn outGentlemen of the world
I read your books and look at your art
Hesitantly, gentlemen of the world
You want to educate our young
But soon they'll be on their ownAnd I'll sleep, sleep in your
Nova heart
As things come apartI'll hide, hide in your
Nova heart
At ease with my thoughtsAnd I'll sleep, sleep in your
Nova heart
As things come apartAnd I'll rest, rest in your
Nova heart
At ease with the thought
That this nova won't burn out
