Last Dying Breath

Sabaton

War's begun, the Kaiser has come
Day or night, the shells keep falling
Overrun, but never outdone
Street to street, denying defeatSoldiers of the Serbian army
Keep your heads held high
Overrun, you fall one by one
For Belgrade and the FatherlandSoldiers, heroes, die for your land!
Your lives are gone, erased by your command!Until your last dying breath!
Until your last dying breath!Overrun, you're under the gun
Day or night, the shells kept falling
Sound the drum, the Great War has come
Show no fear, the ending is near
A final charge to face the fire
Falling one by one
Major calls, the white city falls
Belgrade's streets are stained by bloodSoldiers, heroes, die for your land!
Your lives are gone, erased by your command!Until your last dying breath!
Until your last dying breath![solo]Soldiers, heroes, die for your land!
Your lives are gone, erased by your command!Until your last dying breath!
(In haste, our lives are erased,
Forward, to glory, for king and country!)
Until your last dying breath!
(Defend the honour of Belgrade,
Forward, to glory, to face your fate at last!)Until your last dying breath!
(In haste, our lives are erased,
Forward, to glory, for king and country!)
Until your last dying breath!
(Defend the honour of Belgrade,
Forward, to glory, to face your fate at last!)
