

Final Judgement

Proof

One thing before the end
Remember where you fuckin stand You've been rejected all this time
Don't lose your hope stand up and fight I've walked through fire in this life
And just tryin to survive
To keep the flame inside my soul Let nobody take control my hatred pact the eye of the storm with no trace of white in my black take my hand now and walk through hell and back a promise to myself im not gonna crack
the words of ignorance no turning back! What the fuck do you want me to say!?
You cannot take away my dignity!
What the fuck do you want me to say!?
Need to stop this sick game, and die today! Speak up! I'm the bringer of the death
The red sky above your head Like an actor plays a part Being fake before the start Hit a corner of your mind Mutilation from inside!
Driven by fear you wake Ask yourself! What the fuck do you want! Me to say!?
You cannot take away! My dignity!
What the fuck do you want! Me to say!?
Need to stop this sick game, and die today! The time! Is here! To take its part!
You wait! For hope! To throw the card! The time! Is here! To take its part!
You wait! For hope! -----Now bleed in vain!
