

Why Should I Be Sad

Britney Spears

They couldn't believe I did it
But I was so committed
My life was so restricted for you
I just told them sat at night
Couldn't sleep and feel inside
Thought I'd be plenty for you
Exchanged my vows and said it all
Hold my life, let's prepare to fall
Even screamed at dinner for you
My friends said you would play me
But I just said they're crazy
While I was crying frantic, was it true?
Why should I be sad? Heaven knows
From the stupid freakin' things that you do
I shouldn't get mad or sad, who knows
Just take it all as a sign that we're through
Goodbye, it's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs
Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
I sent you to Vegas
With a pocket full of paper
And with no ultimatums on you
I thought what could separate us
But it just seemed that Vegas
Only brought the pimp out of you
Lavish homes and fancy cars
Even got the truck Ferrari
Filled up our garage for you
Made your choice with all the themes
People, limos, magazines
Tell me who'd I do that for? Who?
Why should I be sad? Heaven knows
From the stupid freakin' things that you do
I shouldn't get mad or sad, who knows
Just take it all as a sign that we're through
Goodbye, it's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs

Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
It's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs
Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
And don't you worry about a thing just
Of a magazines trying to put
Some things in the gossip section [Incomprehensible] sound betrayed but Don't worry I'll keep a little secret
Just let me ask this question
Why should I be sad? Heaven knows
From the stupid freakin' things that you do
I shouldn't get mad or sad, who knows
Just take it all as a sign that we're through
Goodbye, it's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs
Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
Goodbye, it's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs
Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
Goodbye, it's time for me to move along
Goodbye, it's time for me to get it on
Okay, I'm tired of singin' sad songs
Alright, it's time for me, Britney let's go
Oh come on
