Never Gonna Happen

Colette Carr

Ooh whoo ooh
Ooh whoo ooh

You hang up, I call back, I think that, it's never gonna happen
I give up, you call back, we're on tracks and never gonna happen

Seems to always end up to be the same
No matter who's fault I take the blame,
And you say it's okay but it's not okay
When these hands shake like palm 08,
'Cause no matter how much we attempt a change,
It always tends up to end up this way,
When you're in the wrong and I say I'm sorry,
Then I stay out late and you never worry.

Headed straight back to the same zone
Sick of that song that I hate on your ring tone,
Hearing it play all the way through,
'Cause you never pick up when I'm in this mood and,
You knew, I knew, we're doomed,
But not through, no matter how hard we,
Try to it's never gonna happen is it?

You hang up, I call back, I think that it's never gonna happen
I give up, you call back, we're on tracks and never gonna happen

Ooh whoo ooh, it's never gonna happen
Ooh whoo ooh, it's never gonna happen

Can't stop at a dead end,
Unless you don't wanna keep going,
U-turn then you turn back
Then you walk past like you don't know me,
Call back when you get lonely,
That's what we always do,
You only pull me in when I try and get rid of you.

Headed straight back to the same zone
Sick of that song that I hate on your ring tone,
Hearing it play all the way through,

'Cause you never pick up when I'm in this mood and,
You knew, I knew, we're doomed,
But not through, no matter how hard we,
Try to it's never gonna happen is it?

You hang up, I call back, I think that it's never gonna happen
I give up, you call back, we're on tracks and never gonna happen
You hang up, I call back, I think that it's never gonna happen
I give up, you call back, we're on tracks and never gonna happen

Headed straight back to the same zone
Sick of that song that I hate on your ring tone,
Hearing it play all the way through,
'Cause you never pick up when I'm in this mood and,
You knew, I knew, we're doomed,
But not through, no matter how hard we,
Try to it's never gonna happen is it? (is it?)

(never gonna happen is it, is it, is it?)
