Does That Make Sense (Demo)

The Jealous Sound

It's the car in the crash and it all kicks your ass
You can't breathe
It's the start and the stall and the shame of it all
It's something deceiving
Is there joy in your disease
It's the push of the past and the die that we cast out
Over and overWith you in my arms I will be new
And stolen charm does that make sense to you
Does that make any
Does that make sense to youIt's the song that you bring as the pawn takes the king
I'm willing to wager
The line for the drinks and everyone stinks
Cell phone and pagers
Don't feed that line to me
It's smoke and it's sex and it's what they expect
It's taking me overWith you in my arms I will be new
And stolen charm does that make sense to youWith the hold around your wrist
The hope I have this
These arms wont move 'til you
Refuse to let this dieAnd if the motion makes you sick
The point I never miss
These arms won't leave 'til you
Believe my side is foreverWith you in my arms I will be new
And stolen charm does that make sense to youWith you in my arms I will be new
And stolen charm does that make sense to you
