Call Me Beautiful

Ginny Owens

I've been waiting
For a hero who's brave and strong
Someone to love me
Someone to tell me I belongSo I pretend I'm satisfied
And I stand watching on the sidelines
Till You pull me into the light
And say, 'It's your turn now welcome to your life'And You call me beautiful
And say You've loved me all along
And You've always held the keys to unlock my soul
Oh, You call me beautifulThere's a smile on my face
And a brand new light in my eyes
It's a new day
And I've never felt so aliveI feel as if I could conquer anything
Oh, that's what Your love has done for me
And now all I want to be
Is everything You want me to beOh, You call me beautiful
And say You've loved me all along
And You've always held the keys
To unlock my soul, but I didn't knowThat I can finally start to live
And take those chances I have missed
Things will be much different
Now that I know You call me beautifulThe story's better than I could dream after all
Now this is reality
To know You and to hear You call me beautiful
Call me beautiful, call me beautifulNow I can finally start to live
And take those chances I have missed
And things will be much different
Now that I know, now that I know
You call me beautiful

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/