

Watch You Fall

The Sweetest Condition

Through all your promises
your broken promises,
I've waited long enough.
You can't reach me. Through all your promises,
your broken promises,
now there's nothing left
you can teach me. Hold tight to me
I'd hate to see you slipping...
see your pride ripping I see through your lies,
your dirty alibis.
Not at your beck and call.
Can't wait to watch you fall.
Watch you fall. I can't wait to watch you fall.
Watch you fall.
Watch you fall.
I can't wait to watch you...
Can't wait to watch you Can't wait to watch you. Through all your push and pull,
silly parlor games,
finally found the boy
behind the mystery man. All your push and pull,
times you never changed,
it's time to drop the mask,
live up to your name. Hold tight to me.
I'd hate to see you slipping...
see your pride. I see through your lies,
your dirty alibis.
Not at your beck and call.
Can't wait to watch you fall.
Watch you fall. I can't wait to watch you fall.
Watch you fall. Watch you fall.
I can't wait to watch you...
Can't wait to watch you.
Can't wait to watch you.
