

Not Looking Back

More Than Crossed

I'm late for work and always last in line
My boss is yelling at me "be on time"
So I ask myself what I want to do
I'm underpaid and tired
Fuck the rules
I have tried and I've failed miserably
I'm not looking back
I'm free to decide
They've already wasted time
I'm not looking back
It's 6AM, I'm up before sunrise
The shower won't warm up, but I'll be fine
My rent is late
And it is cold outside
My cash flow's slow but I still have my pride
I have tried and I've failed miserably
I'm not looking back
I'm free to decide
They've already wasted time

I'm not looking back
I'm free to decide
They've already wasted time
I'm not looking back
I have realised that I'm wasting time on people who use me
And suck me dry
I'm standing higher
I'm rising up above
I have tried and I've failed miserably
I'm not looking back
I'm free to decide
They've already wasted time
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back
