

Makeshift Kingdom

Sweatshop Union

[Verse 1]

Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom

Inca, Maya

Lakota, Tsimshian

Africa risin

Middle East churnin

We don't give a fuck, let the griddle keep burnin

Truth be told we nuclear souls

Indigo, in the cold, new to these zones

Carbon based body make a suitable home, my temporary temple, I'm soon to be gone

Fly, pelican fly to the moon

Jupiter, Lucifer, high from the shroom

Underworld chillin with Osiris and gloom, you in the jungle runnin like Elijah's platoon

Watch us rise from the tomb crystaline dreams civilized the baboon

You liars are doomed,

I'm standing in the fire sayin I am the truth, let's go

[Chorus]

Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome

Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom

Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome

Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom

Everything that was

Everything that is

Everything that will be, everything is this

Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom

[Verse 2]

None of it even matters

Cause we ain't even matter

We takin it makin it,

just from repeating patterns

Reenactments

Tryin to see some truth,

but it's buried far deeper than we can reach and path this

The same fabric of space we inhabit where we imagine these elaborate dreams and haven't even ever seen a fraction,

of what we really are It's silly all we care about is cash and Other such attachments, keepin our minds absent,
and inactive,
trapped in the same place we have been for so long,
confusin territories with the maps in our minds, too distracted to find where the path is Blind to the vastness
Tryin to move forward just inclined to go backwards
Time just elapses Searchin for the side where the grass is, greener til we leave our bodies lyin in a casket

[Chorus]

Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome
Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom
Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome
Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom
Everything that was
Everything that is
Everything that will be, everything is this
Welcome to my Makeshift Kingdom

[Verse 3/Outro]

Whatever happens, happens
Whatever doesn't, doesn't
I guess it is what it is, what it was wasn't
What I thought it was, it wasn't what I thought it wasn't
What I thought it was, it wasn't what I thought it wasn't

Whatever happens, happens
I guess it is what it is, what it was wasn't
What I thought it was, it wasn't what I thought it wasn't
