Jericho

Hilary Duff

Hop a fast train out of town
Downside up and upside down
Going fast is going slow
What could've been, we'll never knowIn this place that has no name
I can't remember why I came
Then I hear you whisper low
One more mile to JerichoNothing is ever what it seems
When you live inside you dreamsThe walls will tumble
The walls will tumble
But I'm not gonna cry
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbyeEverybody gets the joke
Where's the fire?
Where's the smoke?
Money, love and jealousy
Somethings got a hold of meBut I will follow where you go
One more mile to JerichoThe walls will tumble
The walls will tumble
But I'm not gonna cry
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbye
Goodbye now, goodbyeOne more mile
One more kiss
One more word
One more wishAnd love will save us
This I know
From this place called JerichoThe walls will tumble
The walls will tumble
But I'm not gonna cry
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbyeThe walls will tumble
The walls will tumble
But I'm not gonna cry
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbyeThe walls will tumble

The walls will tumble
If we ever say goodbye
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbyeThe walls will tumble
The walls will tumble
If we ever say goodbye
My heart won't crumble
My heart won't crumble
If we ever say goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye
