

Midnight Lullaby

Astorian Stigmata

Drowning in the chemicals
With a fear of dangerous attraction
An abstract elegance delivered by deception
Hold it now, only deep breaths

Listen to the heart
Just telling the soul lies
Just lust dancing
In Loves disguise

But here we go, alright

There's a dead sky hangin' above tonight
And it's clouding out the dream of innocence
Killing in the name of the unconscious
Cause nothing ever is just as it seems
And that's alright with me,

One day
Retrospective
All the time is gone
One day
You'll think of me
Dynamite and sin

And all that was found has gone to be found again
And that emptiness remains
Stains the mind with the memory
Of how it all slips by so fast
And you crush your fingers
Search your mind
But all, All is lost

One day
Retrospective
All the time is gone
One day
You'll think of me
Dynamite and sin
