Ivy

Spitball

Oh oh oh oh...
Finding you felt like the rain
Falling unexpectedly
When all I could feel was rain
You came along and set me free
You have been my fantasy
Until the day you held my face
My heart finally found it's place
You entered my reality
Like ivy you've wrapped around me
On roses I walk
As soon as you talk
Like ivy you've grown inside me
I know that you'll stay

I don't need to pray anymore
I don't need to pray
Somehow you stole all the pain away
Ivy I'm yours, yours
Oh oh oh oh....
You are beauty inside-out
Like this painting on the wall
All the colours that you've got
Don't need any light at all
Chorus
Oh oh oh oh ....
Finding you felt like the rain.
