Need the Sun To Break

James Bay

I'm halfway gone, sleepless I'm battle-worn
And you're all I want, so bring me the dawnI need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm shaking, oh my luck could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I need
I hope that I'm not too late, and I hope I'm not too lateBack of the room, how come my friends already know you?
Feel like a kid, too shy to speak up so I keep it hid
Oh butterflies, you steal my sleep each nightI need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm shaking, oh my luck could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I need
I hope that I'm not too late, and I hope I'm not too late
Ooh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, ohI need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm shaking, oh my luck could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I need
I hope that I'm not too late, and I hope I'm not too lateOh no yes I hope that I'm not too late
Ooh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, oh
Ooh, oh, oh
