

2 The Sky

Robin Thicke

It's amazing the way
The darkness falls
And the truth out there is cold
And nothing to keep you warm Jealousy and lies, within me
I got a feeling the sun won't shine today
And I gotta know right now
Will I be rich, have everything I want?
I stop myself and look 2 the sky I gotta give myself up 2 the sky
The only truth is in the sky Nobody just can tell
'Coz I'm stuck in a spell
Of greed and anger and hate I tried, I tried, I tried
I tried to rise above you
Here, comes right back, creeps up on me
And it hits me double time This can't be my faith
It's never too late
I wake up holding on to this pain
And there's nothing else I can do
But to give myself up 2 the sky Save me, take me 2 the, 2 the sky
Save me, take me, take me 2 the sky It's so wrong out here
I need the sky
So cold out here
Come and save me, need to fly
I gotta give myself 2 the sky Love you, love you, love you
Take you, take you 2 the sky
2 the sky, 2 the sky
Love you, love you, love you
Keep you, take you 2 the sky When you ask yourself
Hey, why me and why not me?
Oh, get down on your knees Hey, go 2 the sky
Just run 2 the sky
You don't need no faster car
Or no bigger house
All you really need is really love Hey, throw up your hands
Just throw up your heart
Then you'll really need love I'm coming home
Come on home
