

Swallowed Up (In the Belly of the Whale)

Bruce Springsteen

I fell asleep on a dark and starry sea with nothing but the cloak of God's mercy over me I come upon strangers and a great black cave I dreamed i awoke as if buried in my grave
We've been swallowed up
We've been swallowed up
Disappeared from this world
We've been swallowed up Bones of sailors from the north and sailors from the east Lay high in a pyre in the valley of a beast Be should you wander in its path upon your ship and your flesh and son You've disappeared from this world Till You've swallowed up we've been swallowed up
we've been swallowed up
Disappeared from this world
we've been swallowed up Trust at our skills and our good sails put our faith back with God the righteous in this world prevail But we've been swallowed up
We've been swallowed up
Disappeared from this world
we've been swallowed up We've been swallowed up
We've been swallowed up
Disappeared from this world
