

Hope We Make It

Turin Brakes

The cards are stacked and out of whack
The wrong way down a one way track
There's a wave of change that's rising
It starts inside a lonely soul
The pressure mounts and it takes its toll
There's a clear horizon line
Somewhere down the road
I hope we make it
Hope we make it through
The in-between and out of luck
Seems like no one gives a damn
Sleepwalk to disaster
We build it tall then watch it fall
Trees on fires death to all
Is there a clear horizon line
Somewhere past this all?
I hope we make it
Hope we make it through
