

A Letter to Myself

The Chi-Lites

Write a letter, write another letter
Write a letter, write another letter
Write a letterI'm sealing up this letter
I just finished signing your name
My friends would all be surprised
If they knew I was playing this gameI'll pretend it's a special delivery
And just to give me a hint
I'll use your favorite color
Smear it with your favorite scentAnd I know you'd think that I'm crazy
But I can't lose what have I left
So I've decided to write this letter
And send it to myselfSo to make my story short
In the mail box I will place
This letter that I wrote
And it's stamped with your lovely faceWhen I'm alone
And I need someone to talk to
I talk to your pictureGet me a pencil and paper
And write all the things
Say all the things
I've heard you say beforeBut with a little extra
Extra read all about it
Sugar and spice
I guess it makes me feel kind of niceI write a letter to myself
Oh, write another letter to myself
I write another letter to myself
Oh, I write another letter to myselfWhat is a home when you're all alone
It seems so full, it seems so full but so emptyOh, I put on the coat, leave you a note
And go to the places, places, places where we used to be
I pretend you are there, order dinner for two
Your very presence is all in the airI write a letter to myself
Oh, write another letter to myself
I write another letter to myself
Oh, I write another letter to myselfI write another letter to myself
Write another letter to myself
I write another letter to myself
Oh, I write another letter to myselfI write another letter to myself
Write another letter to myself
Write another letter to myself
Write another letter to myself
