Feels Like Rain

Adam Gregory

I turned out the lights
Layed down my pride
But she never said goodnight to me
She just closed her eyes
And waited while I watch her just fall asleep
So tell me why, oh why?
If there just aint a cloud in the sky?
Why? Oh why?
If feels like rain
It just feels like rain baby
Everyday day and every night
I try and I try to just be youre everything
The light of your life
That you hold on so tight
To protect you from anything
So tell me why, oh why?
If there just aint a cloud in the sky?

Why? Oh why?
If feels like rain
It just feels like rain darling
If feels like rain
It just feels like rain
If we hold on to something
If we just let it slide
We can make it to everything
Cause baby youre all that i want
Youre all that I want little darling
So tell me why, oh why?
If there just aint a cloud in the sky?
Why? Oh why?
If feels like rain
It just feels like rain darling
If feels like rain
It just feels like rain
Oh i wanna love, i wanna love you....
