Yeah You

Embrace

Stranger
You ever stole a win off the jaws of defeat?
When it's there for the taking
You'll find me, I'll be dancing all over its teeth
We're never gonna know our place, you and me
No, we're not fitting inAnd we know what you're doing
And it's too late to change now, we've got the floor
We saved our time for living
And we aren't gonna take any shit anymore
No, we ain't gonna take any shit any more
So suck your evil inChanges
You've always been too down on yourself for years
You want a bow and take it
But we free dinners kids with the big ideas
We'll always take the stick while ignoring the fear
That we could give it inAnd we know what you're doing
And it's too late to change now, we've got the floor
We saved our time for living
And we aren't gonna take any shit anymore
No, we ain't gonna take any shit any more
So suck your evil inWe know what you're doing
And it's too late to change now, we've got the floor
We saved our time for living
And we aren't gonna take any shit anymore
No, we ain't gonna take any shit any more
So suck your evil inYeah, yeah, yeah, yeahYeah you
Yeah you
Yeah you
Yeah you
