

A Good Day To Die

Nat Baldwin

It's hard to believe it's all over Left at the side of the road
A world of work, and a life itself What does it all mean now that it's gone with no way to return no blood and guts
If I knew that it would come to this
I would do it again
A good day to die
is the only way I know how to live Could the path be all I take away from this It's so close, I can taste the reward, oh! bitter and so sweet dead legs
And a slow birth for new steps is all that's left
If I knew that it would come to this
I would do it again
A good day to die
is the only way I know how to live this life
