

You'll Be Okay (Acoustic)

Michael Schulte

Cold, as you turn off the lights
And memories start floating around
 You're doubting yourself
And you're tired of not being strongIt hurts to be all on your own
 But you'll just have to wait
 Cause time's running fast
And it calms you to know it won't lastIt's easy to say
 It'll all be okay
 But that's always the way
 It goes
 So slow down
 And you'll be okay
 Torn and lost once again
You start to believe it won't end
 And still you're alone
With the fear that you're forever unknownYou cannot understand
 Why you're always the one that gets hurt
 Life's unfair but it pulls you back in when you're almost gone
 It's easy to say
 It'll all be okay
 But that's always the way
 It goes
 So slow down
 And you'll be okay.
