Goodbye

Bleachers

Goodbye to the friends I hadGoodbye, goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye, goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye, goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favor
Goodbye, goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye, goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye, goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favor
Lent me a favor
Lent me a favor
Lent me a favor
Lent me, anybody who lent me
Hmm, anybody who lent meGoodbye to the friends I've had
And I finally found my stride when I walked in the background
(A radical and beautiful act, but I haven't taught myself that so I can)
Everybody used to ball with the war, with the pain
(Growing up with all these fears and I don't even know why I'm saying all this)
Got my song and I feel like giving up rainbows and calling
Everybody lost somebody, hmm
(Just all these fears and all this pain. I never trusted anybody and I know it's not everything)
Tearing it all off and the war and the whoa-oh-whoa-whoa
Two dollar singing with my song in the fan like whoa
Only wanna rhythm in the side when
Every night I walk past your window
Goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favor
Goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favorGoodbye, goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye, goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye, goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favor
Goodbye, goodbye to the friends I've had
Goodbye, goodbye to my upstairs neighbor
Goodbye, goodbye to the kids downstairs and
Anybody who lent me a favorLent me a favor

Lent me a favor
Lent me a favor
(Goodbye to the friends I had)
Lent me, anybody who lent me
Hmm, anybody who lent me
