Oh Boy

Duffy

Oh boy, if you ever have to let me down in this world
My life surely would be upside down
If you ever find that your peace of mind
Is shattered in so many ways
And I find my feet down on lonely street
I'll be stood there waiting for you, boy, you got me
Oh yeah, let me look into your deep brown eyes
Let me share every moment, every sweet surprise
See that I have grown and need mercy shown

There's a window to my heart
If I find my feet down on lonely street
I'll be stood there waiting for you
Boy, you've got me high
Boy, you've got me high
Boy, you've got me high
But if I find my feet down on lonely street
I'll be stood there waiting for you, boy, you've got me
