Heal Me (Remastered 2016)

Gamma Ray

When I wake up at the end of the day
The moon comes out, the sun fades away
I get myself out of my bed and feel like dyingIs it really me now? Could this be the real thing?
Is there someone here to ease the pain?
So easy, so easy now, has it really gone too far?It don't matter anyhow, sometimes I feel like an Echo in the wind, that's not coming back againYeah, ooh, I look inside my head and what I see
Are the reflections of the world?
And I see genius and insanityYou are alive, you're part of the show
You came to foresee the signs on the wallSo many tried in vain, they know the truth
Learn how to live and fight and learn
How to fight them right and learn how to live and take it allYou can be strong if you know who you are
The signs on the wall tell you move on before it's too lateWho know, could this be forever? Could it all be lies?
Ohh, no the chaos is a killer, knows who will fallHelp, now is there someone out there
What are you waiting for?
You're on the road to nowhere
The only way I knowMaybe I'm wrong, I haven't got a clue
Don't know where I belong, tell me what is true? ohh, wow, wowOhh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear meAre you out there? Yeah, in a world without me, hell
So you're out there, I see, ohh, woo, woo
Is this the real life forevermore?
Don't just keep smiling, Jesus loves youThat's what they say, you can sit and cry, cry forevermore
It's just a matter of taste
But you say, "Do you, do you know what the truth is?"Ohh, think, don't think, hey, what can you see?
Our life is just a fantasy of someone we will never see
Therefore I break down in laughterNow as I change my point of view
There's nothing left to make me blue
Never again, and no moreCome on in my friend and join the ball
Everything is beautiful, even the band, it's magic Imagine you're a superstar you gonna fly
You gonna go far, ooh, so farOhh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Ohh, won't you come to heal me? Hear me
Heal me, heal me, heal me, heal me
