

Free

Stevie Wonder

Free like the river
Flowing freely through infinity
Free to be sure of
What I am and who I need not beFree from all worries
Worries prey on one self's troubled mind
Freer than the clock's hands
Tickin' way the timesFreer than the meaning of free
That man defines
Life running through me
Till I feel my father God has calledMe having nothin'
But possessing riches more than all
And I'm free to be nowhere
But in every place I need to beFreer than a sunbeam shining through my soul
Free from feelin' heat or knowing bitter cold
Free from conceiving the beginning
For that's the infinite startI'm gone, gone but still living
Life goes on without a beating heart
Free like a vision
That the mind of only you can seeFreer than the raindrop
Falling from the sky
Freer than a smile
In a baby's sleepin' eyesI'm free like a river
Flowin' freely through infinity
I'm free to be sure of
What I am and who I need not to beI'm much freer like the meaning
Of the word free that man, man defines
Free, yeah, like the vision
That the mind of only, only you will ever see
Free like the river
My life goes on and on through infinity
