A Thing Called Love

Jerry Reed

Six foot six he stood on the ground Weighed two hundred and thirty five pounds But I saw that giant of a man brought down To his knees by loveHe was the kind of man that would gamble on luck Look you in the eye and never back up But I saw him cryin' like a little whipped pup Because of loveCan't see it with your eyes hold it in your hand But like the wind that covers our land Strong enough to rule the heart of any man This thing called loveIt can lift you up, it can let you down Take your world turn it all around Ever since time nothings ever been found Stronger than loveMost men are like me they struggle in doubt They trouble their minds day in and day out Too busy with livin' to worry about A word called loveBut when I see a mother's tenderness As she holds her young close to her breast Than I thank God this world's been blessed With a word called loveCan't see it with your eyes hold it in your hand But like the wind it covers our land Strong enough to rule the heart of any man This thing called loveIt can lift you up, it can let you down Take your world turn it all around Ever since time nothings ever been found Stronger than love
