

Overlord

Sacramentum

The undying embrace of chaos and war
As the oppressed lie writhing down on the floor
 This Babylon of fear that you shall know
 To rule and suppress, destroy and overthrow
 Kings of this world
 The servants shall serve
 Slaves never free
 Kings of this world all that's to be
 All that you hear and all that you see
 I am your overlord
 Everything above and below
 I am your overlord
 The exodus of your will and
 All that you'll ever know

This brotherhood of snakes shall
 Rule and control
 The corruption of man his fate
 And his soul
This flame of black which burns
 So bright
 For the slaves shall never see
 The apocalyptic end of the past
 The new world shall forever be
 The great conspiracy
 The betrayal of god
 The fires of revolution
 Aimed at the heavens above
