

Heart on the Floor (feat. Dia Frampton)

The Summer Set

I was at an all time low, the night you walked in
You were just close enough to smell the whiskey on the breath
I didn't know why you were alone, but you ain't leaving that way
I threw back one whole drink before I asked you your name
And I said hey, hey, why you acting so sorry?
Hey, hey, who put that look on your face? And I don't wanna leave this bar until I get your number
And if I'm being honest, I can't wait to get you home
But unlike all the others I won't jet the morning after
I won't go dropping your heart on the floor
Come on, uh, uh, just give me what I want yeah
Uh, uh, don't drop my heart on the floor Staring at the lipstick stain on your second glass of wine
I told you since I bought it I suppose your lips are mine
But you didn't laugh, brought up the past
Said I've been hurt before
Just about enough to know that I can't take no more And I don't wanna leave this bar until I get your number
And if I'm being honest, I can't wait to get you home
But unlike all the others I won't jet the morning after
I won't go dropping your heart on the floor
Come on, uh, uh, just give me what I want yeah
Uh, uh, don't drop my heart on the floor Don't over think what you want
Yeah you got the right to move on
From this bar to my door
Come on let that dress hit the floor
We got the rest of our lives
Let me take you for the ride
Somewhere you've never been before
And you'll be screaming And I don't wanna leave this bar until I get your number
And if I'm being honest, I can't wait to get you home
But unlike all the others I won't jet the morning after
I won't go dropping your heart on the floor
And I don't wanna leave this bar until I get your number
And if I'm being honest, I can't wait to get you home
But unlike all the others I won't jet the morning after
I won't go dropping your heart on the floor
Uh, uh, just give me what I want yeah
