

Only You

Ayo

Only you can have my soul
Oh, you can have it all
Everything you want, my heart, my love
To you they belong foreverLet me explain how I feel about you
For it's too easy to say, honey, I love you
I will try to describe what I mean and how it feels like
For that Ill use words, melodies and signsYou were my heaven on earth, the light of my sun
Through you I gave birth, you made me a woman
Every color of my world that's what you are
Like a lion rules the jungle you rule my heartAnd only you can have my soul
Oh, you can have it all
Everything you want, my heart, my love
To you they belong foreverDarlin you
You turn my nights into days
Cause every second and a minute of each hour
I need to see your faceI need to touch you, smell you, hug you
All through the day
Kiss you, hug you, smell you, touch you, tease you, please you
And sing your nameOnly you can have my soul
Oh, you can have it all
Everything you want, my heart, my love
To you they belong foreverNo matter what we'll be with you and me
You'll always have my soul, my heart, my love, my everything
No matter what we'll be with you and me
You'll always have my soul, my heart, my love, my everythingOnly you can have my soul
Oh, you can have it all
Everything you want, my heart, my love
To you they belong foreverOnly you can have my soul
Oh, you can have it all
Everything you want, my heart, my love
To you they belong forever
