Trampoline

Never Shout Never

And who would have thought
That a cutie pie just like you
Would have anything to do
With a smelly dude like me
I find it hard to believe
And who would have thought
That you ever would have
Kissed my cheek in your backyard
On your trampoline that night
I never put up a fight
And I know that you're all shook up
From a terrible relationship
He broke your heart
Yeah, he tore you into pieces
But I promise you, dear
I'll never touch you like he did
So baby, please take my hand
And you'll never be alone again
And every single time I look in to your eyes
I see a little bit more sunshine

I feel a little bit more like me
Instead of who I turned out to be
I wouldn't trade it for a thing
Can I call you my baby?
And I know that you're all shook up
From a terrible relationship
He broke your heart
Yeah, he tore you into pieces
But I promise you, dear
I'll never touch you like he did
So baby, please take my hand
And you'll never be alone again
'Cause I know he broke your heart
But I'll love you till the end
So baby, please take my hand
And you'll never be alone again
So baby, please take my hand
And you'll never be alone again

So baby, please take my hand
And you'll never be alone again

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/