Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I wanna rock, but you, you dared to roll
I came by your house, but you, you weren't at home
Well, I knock on your door, I hear you beg for more
You broke the law you see, and that's a felonyI think you've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
Now I know what you've done to me
At the scene of the crime
Cold blooded bitch goin' out on meGot me a weapon, got me a loaded gun
You know I'll track you down
And you'll be on the run, no funI think you've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
You broke the law in the first degree
Cold blooded bitch goin' out on meYou've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
Well now I know what you thought of me
Cold blooded bitch goin' out on meWell, I know, well, you know, well I know
Well, I know, well your games
And I don't wanna playI think you've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
You broke the law in the first degree

Cold blooded bitch goin' out on meYou've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
Well, now I know what you thought of me
Cold blooded bitch goin' out on meYou've been out, and I've been cheated
Well, I've been lied to, again and again, again and againI think you've been caught
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the crime
(You have been caught)
At the scene of the
Now I know what you've done to me
At the scene of the crime
Cold blooded bitch goin' out on me
At the scene of the(You have been caught)
