Empty space

The Merricks

Too late to hide
And too tired to care
Take what you've left
And forget the restTake what you see
Of what's left of me
You know where I've been
And I don't want to go there againYou're beautiful
You're confusing
You're illogical
You're amazingAnd I've seen the world
It's overrated
Until you're everything
I have nothing
But empty spaceI've been down
This road before
All that I've found
Points me right back to youI've watch you move
From down below
Where do I go from here
I guess I'll find out as I goYou're beautiful
You're confusing
You're illogical
You're amazingAnd I've seen the world
It's overrated
Until you're everything
I have nothing
But empty spaceYou're beautiful
You're confusing
You're illogical
You're amazingAnd I've seen the world
It's overrated
Until you're everything
I have nothingUntil you're everything
I have nothing
But an empty space
