

Make It on My Own

Eliza and the Bear

Why don't you show the world?
Why don't you make a tiny change?
Why don't you show the world
and make it on your own?
I'm on my own again,
and I won't sleep 'till I forget.
I've broken promises.
So have you - don't you regret?
Stop doing.
Stop doing it.
Stop doing.
Keep hold of what you got.
Why don't you show the world?
Why don't you make a tiny change?
Why don't you show the world
and make it on your own?
Hey, I'll be fine,
and I'll make it on my own.
Hey, I'll be fine,
and I'll make it on my own.
I'm not at ease with this,
I'm not a peace with my own self,
I've broken promises.
Will I get time to figure it out?
Stop doing.
Stop doing it.
Stop doing.
Keep hold of what you got.
Why don't you show the world?
Why don't you make a tiny change?
Why don't you show the world
and make it on your own?
Hey, I'll be fine,
and I'll make it on my own.
Hey, I'll be fine,
and I'll make it on my own.
Ooh, ooooh, ooooooooooh.
Ooh, ooooh, ooooooooooh.
Why don't you show the world?

Why don't you make a tiny change?

Who don't you show the world

and make it on your own?

Hey, I'll be fine,

and I'll make it on my own.

Hey, I'll be fine,

and I'll make it on my own.

Hey, I'll be fine,

and I'll make it on my own.

Hey, I'll be fine,

and I'll make it on my own.

Ooh, ooooh, ooooooooh.
