

This Is My Gift to You

Christian d'Or

Lies, a house I build without fear
Lies, I add a stone with every tear
Lies, did they keep us together or keep us apart?
Lies, you can trust me a light from the the start

But you can trust me to tell you lies
And you can trust me to neglect you
And you can trust me to love your eyes but you can't trust me to stay true

Now we're through
This is my gift to you
Bombing you
Was being true
This is my gift to you

Time, you say you wasted it on me
Time, well, you did
Time, oh yes it's time to set you free
Time, you spent so much observing me

Time after time, pushing you away
Without saying a word
What in the world made you stay
Despite all the stuff you've learned?

Now we're through
This is my gift to you
Bombing you
Was being true
This is my gift to you
