

Where's the Girl?

Voltaire & Aurelio Voltaire

where's the girl i fell in love with?
where'd she go?
where's that kind and gentle princess of my dreams?where'd she go?
why'd she go away?
where'd she go?
why'd you take her away from me?where's the child who used to play there in her eyes?
could it be she still resides there in disguise?
every day i look for a sign
all in vain, it's a colossal waste of time
what have you done to her?
why have you taken her away?
where have you buried her?
hid from the light of day...what have you done to her?
why have you taken her away?
where have you buried her?
so far away from me?
so out of reach?
oh...
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live?
does she still live behind your eyes?
