Forget It, Itâ€™s a Mystery

Lisa Germano

I hate you 'cause I love you
I need you 'cause I want to
Forget it it's a mystery
And I'm a little worriedI hurt so deep when you resist
Can't feel a thing except how much
I hate you 'cause I love youAn irritating sucker
I'm talking about myself, see
I'm manic since you made meI know you like perfection
Variety, erectionsI love you 'cause I hate me
Oblivious and hurting
Emotionally stuck here
An irritating suckerDo you remember
Last year when you caught it
Some lie 'bout stress and I ate itI don't wanna hate you
I really wanna love you
I liked it when you hurt me
Forget it it's a mystery
