Brag

Tove Styrke

I gotta tell, don't mean to be rude
I got it all and nothing to prove
You gotta worry, gotta stand out
I got the fix though turn it up loud
I'm gonna be okay so to say
Gonna be okay
I just gimme something to say and I'll be okay
I don't brag about my great life
Don't brag about sharp style
Just little things that set my head on fire
No need for me to shout it out
I don't brag about my bright mind
Just pointing at my insight
Don't brag about my sweet lalalalalife
No need for me to spell it out
You gotta worry, you gotta care
I got a lot, I'm eager to share
I got the perfect angle at last
I gotta show I'm having a blast
I don't brag about my tricks honey I'm like
I swear I never had the doubts I
Nah I don't brag about the kicks in the limelight
I never talk about the downsides
