

Girls Made of Heavy Metal

Hysterica

Hey look to us all
You come to see the show
Raise your hands in the air
Fire in the hole
The arm start to role
For man enjoy this god forsaking bone
We are the girls made of heavy metal
We gotta pursuit to rock
We are the girls made of heavy metal
We gotta rock you to the top
Don't try to punish down
We here to raise some hell
What happens next
The story doesn't tell
Everyone i lost
Will make scream
We played so fucking loud
Your ear start to bleed
