[00:57]
Free your mind, let the soul inside you breathe
Just for a while I want to feel passion's embrace
In another world don't wake me up in my dreams
For time has come to unveil the wings of serendipity

[01:22, Chorus 1]
Hold on, don't fail to breathe
We'll fly high across the sky
Hold on, don't fail to breathe
We'll fly high unto the storm, high!

[01:45, Chorus 2]
Fathom, if you must
Read my thoughts silently
Ye discern as you will
Your mind shall set you free!

[02:21]
Listen and feel the moment where you are now
And release yourself from doubt's captivity
It won't harm, I won't even hurt your pride
For I understand, but then I'll take you to my world

[02:46, Chorus 1]

[03:10, Chorus 2]

[04:41, Chorus 2]
