

Maybe Tomorrow

Christian MÃ¼enzner

I tried to win your heart
That's when I lost my head
I should have saved up all of my feelings
But I squandered them instead
And in one fragile moment
I could almost see
Just how things might have changed for better
I guess what is, was meant to be
Now I know, it's gonna take some time to let you go, oh
 Maybe tomorrow, my heart will mend
 Maybe tomorrow, we'll be friends
 Maybe tomorrow, who's to say?
But tonight, it seems like tomorrow, is so far away, oh yeah
 Tell me what can I do
 To fill the space that once held you?
I see your face in every corner, hear your voice in every room
 And I know this feeling is the ghost of all our tears
 Will you be hauntin' me forever and ever?

I know I don't think that I can let you go, no
 Maybe tomorrow, my heart will mend
 Maybe tomorrow, we'll be friends
 Maybe tomorrow, who's to say?
But tonight, it seems like tomorrow is so far away, hey
 What am I gonna do without you, baby
 Since you've been gone? Ooh
 Maybe tomorrow, my heart will mend
 Maybe tomorrow, we'll be friends
 Maybe tomorrow, who's to say?
But tonight, it seems like tomorrow, is so far away, yeah
 Maybe tomorrow
 Maybe tomorrow
 Maybe tomorrow, who's to say? Hey!
But tonight, it seems like tomorrow is so far away
Oh no, there's just no way that I can let you go, no
