You Got Me

Ashley Monroe

I lay down to sleep at night until the craving for you wakes me up
I reach out to grab you, gotta have you, yell until I had enough
And you got me now, yea yea
And you got me now
We can lock the world outside, close my eyes, give in and then we'll fly
You're a secret that I'm gonna try to keep until the day I die
And you got me now, aah aah
And you got me now
You always want me, you run straight for me
Down the mountain like a raging fire
And the storm is comin', I can hear the warning
I know you're a lie
But you got me now, yea

Oh oh, you got me now
I'm gettin' good at lettin' these excuses roll so easy off my tongue
And you're gettin' good at makin' me feel nothin' while I'm hurting everyone
But you got me now, yea yea
You got me now
You always want me, you run straight for me
Down the mountain like a raging fire
And the storm is comin', I can hear the warning
I know you're a lie
But you got me now,
Ooh, you got me now
I lay down to sleep at night until the craving for you wakes me up
